

GAP Community Child Development Center

One-Page Fact Sheet

Location: Washington, DC

Focus: Early childhood education and family support

Audience: Funders, sponsors, and community partners

Overview

GAP Community Child Development Center is a long-standing early childhood education provider serving Washington, DC families through a trusted, community-rooted model. With more than 40 years of service and 82 children currently enrolled, GAP continues to play an important role in supporting children during critical developmental years while helping families maintain stability and workforce participation.

Why GAP

GAP offers funders and partners a strong combination of experience, credibility, and timely relevance. The organization is already operating at meaningful scale, has documented demand for services, and is positioned to expand the reach of its impact through strategic investment.

Key Proof Points

Indicator	Current position
Years serving families	40+ years
Current enrollment	82 children
Geographic focus	Washington, DC
Core opportunity	Sustain and strengthen access to high-quality childcare
Investment case	A trusted organization with growth momentum and community relevance

Funding Priorities

Investment in GAP can support a range of mission-aligned priorities, including:

Priority area	What support helps strengthen
Program quality	Learning environments, staffing support, and educational delivery
Family access	Stronger childcare access for working families
Capacity and readiness	Organizational systems, planning, and growth preparation
Community partnership	Employer engagement, sponsorship visibility, and local investment alignment

Partnership Options

Tier	Investment level
Founding Partner	$25,000+
Growth Partner	$10,000–24,999
Community Partner	$2,500–9,999
In-Kind Partner	Variable

Why This Matters

Reliable, high-quality childcare helps children thrive, supports caregivers in the workforce, and strengthens families and communities. GAP provides funders and partners with an opportunity to invest in a trusted organization that is already delivering value and is positioned for deeper local impact.

Contact and Partnership Conversation

GAP welcomes conversations with foundations, corporate sponsors, employers, and community investors who want to support early childhood opportunity in Washington, DC.